Hellofolks. I am against the putting thru of electrical transmission lines from quebec to mass by using Maines rural places and rivers to accomplish what is profit for spain and convenience for massachusetts. I believe it to be immoral. I also am fairly sure that none of us can

Truthfully assess the value of nature today. It does stack up a lot higher in importance than profit or comfort. It is what is left to us of gods plan,and should be treasured beyond all else. Thank you, mia boynton phd, farmington maine
