Kennebec County Sheriff's Office 03-RS-16	Sheriff Ken Mason 125 State Street Augusta ME 04330 Website: https://kennebecso.com/	The Kennebec County Sheriff's Office will use the grant funding to provide a Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act (CARA) program. The goal of CARA is guided with the Risk, Need, Responsivity and treatment principles that direct programming to high-risk offenders, target key risk factors and attend to the individual treatment needs of the participant. A vital aspect of Responsivity within CARA is the intention to respond to gender and the differing key risk factors of specific gender and their vulnerability towards recidivism. Research of best practices indicates that often male and females undertake unique pathways towards substance abuse and therefore the rationality of criminogenic behaviors. In order to accomplish the objective of reducing recidivism premised upon substance abuse addictions and mental health disorders, it is imperative to assist the participant to understand their particular pathway to crime. Treatment intervention therefore must touch the essence of the participants' vulnerability. The CARA objective premises upon research based factors that embody The Eight Principles for Effective Intervention.  03-RS-16    $ 46,271.75
