

Maine Wildlife Park Scavenger Hunt

Use this scavenger hunt to uncover animal facts as you explore the Wildlife Park. Your park map, displays, and animal exhibits will help guide you!

- A. The Visitor Center is home to many different reptiles. How many reptiles can you find? ____
- B. A garden needs help from animals and pollinators to grow. Which pollinators can you find in the Wildlife Garden?

- Butterflies
- Bees
- Birds

- C. To avoid predators during the day, some animals have adapted to be most active during the night. Which nocturnal creature at the wildlife park has furry folds of skin for gliding through the air?
- _____

- D. North American Porcupines have more than 20,000 protective hairs on their bodies called quills. True or false, Porcupines can shoot the quills off their bodies? _____

- E. Which two small mammals along the trail are omnivores (eat plants and animals)? _____ and _____

- F. Songbirds make up nearly half of all bird species in the world. Can you find three different species of songbirds in the Backyard Bird exhibit?

- _____
- _____
- _____

- G. People often mistake Bobcats for Canada Lynx. What are two traits that separate these cats from each other? _____ and _____

- H. True or false, Black Bears are “true hibernators”. _____

- I. Male moose are called bulls and female moose are called cows. How can you tell if a moose is a female or male?

- Bulls grow antlers
- Cows are bigger than bulls
- Cows grow antlers
- The way they smell