

How to Start a Flagging Company

There are several important steps to take when someone wants to start a flagging company. Two of the steps involve:

- 1) Training and possible certification of the owners and/or employees and
- 2) Incorporation as a business in the State of Maine.

The latter is addressed here and describes many of the steps involved in starting a company:

<http://www.maine.gov/portal/business/starting.html>