Brian Wilson James

National Producer No. 11098248

Docket No. INS-14-242

LICENSE DENIAL
NOTICE, ORDER,
and
OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

NOTICE TO BRIAN WILSON JAMES:

Effective as of November 7, 2014, the Maine Superintendent of Insurance denies your July, 2014, application for licensure in Maine as a nonresident insurance producer. The reasons for denial are set forth below:

1. On August 20, 2012, the State of California revoked your unrestricted producer license, imposed a $250 penalty, and issued you a restricted license because you failed to report a March 30, 2011, misdemeanor conviction of driving with a suspended license and did not respond to the Insurance Department's request for information. Your failure to respond to the Insurance Department's inquiry constitutes grounds for denial of your application for Maine licensing under 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-K(1)(B), for violating any insurance laws, or violating any rule, regulation, subpoena or order of the superintendent or of another state's insurance commissioner.
2. On June 25, 2013, the State of Wisconsin denied your application for licensure because you failed to disclose the administrative action taken against you in California on the application. Your failure to disclose the California administrative action constitutes grounds for denial of your application for Maine licensing under 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-K(1)(B), for violating any insurance laws, or violating any rule, regulation, subpoena or order of the superintendent or of another state's insurance commissioner; and under § 1420-K(1)(I), for having an insurance producer license, or its equivalent, denied, suspended, or revoked in any other state, province, district, or territory.
3. You were required to disclose the Wisconsin denial on your application for Maine licensure, but failed to do so. This failure constitutes grounds for denial of your application for Maine licensing under 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-K(1)(A), for providing incorrect, misleading, incomplete, or materially untrue information in the license application.

4. On February 18, 2014, the State of Missouri revoked your producer license following a Complaint by the Insurance Director that you (i) provided materially incorrect information on an application by failing to disclose a criminal conviction and the fact that you had been a party to an administrative action in California; (ii) failed to report administrative actions taken against you to the Director; (iii) violated Wisconsin's insurance laws; (iv) obtained a license through material misrepresentation or fraud by failing to disclose a criminal conviction and administrative actions against you; (v) had been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude, grand theft embezzlement; and (vi) you had licenses denied in California and Wisconsin. The Missouri revocation constitutes grounds for denial of your application for Maine licensing under § 1420-K(1)(I), for having an insurance producer license, or its equivalent, denied, suspended, or revoked in any other state, province, district, or territory.
5. On April 7, 1997, you were convicted of misdemeanor grand theft embezzlement in the State of California. You failed to disclose the embezzlement conviction on your Maine application for licensure, which constitutes further grounds for denial of your application for Maine licensing under 24-A M.R.S. § 1420-K(1)(A), for providing incorrect, misleading, incomplete, or materially untrue information in the license application.

Therefore, based upon the above grounds, your application for a Maine insurance producer license is denied as of November 7, 2014, pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. §§1417 and 1420-K, subject to your right to request a hearing.

Under the Maine Insurance Code, specifically 24-A M.R.S. §1417 and §1420-K, you have the right to a hearing before the Superintendent or his designee. If you request a hearing, you will have the right to present evidence and arguments in your defense, and you will bear the burden of proof to show that the Superintendent's denial was not reasonable.

If you request a hearing, you will receive further communication regarding scheduling. The matters to be determined through the hearing process are the establishment of the above grounds, and the appropriate sanctions, which can include any available remedy under applicable laws, including the imposition of civil penalties.

To request a hearing, you must notify the Bureau of Insurance in writing no later than November 7, 2014. If you do not file a written request for a hearing within 30 days from the time you know or reasonably should have known of this impending act through this Notice and Order, you will lose your right to request a hearing on this matter, and your license denial will be final, in accordance with this Notice and Order. Pursuant to 24-A M.R.S. § 213(3), this Notice from the Superintendent to you shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a mail depository of the United States Post Office.

Any request for a hearing, as well as all other communications regarding this Notice, Order, and Opportunity for Hearing must be addressed to Bureau Licensing Attorney Kristina M. Balbo, Bureau of Insurance, #34 State House Station, Augusta, Maine 04333-0034 (for US Postal Service deliveries) or 76 Northern Avenue, Gardiner, Maine 04345 (for private carrier deliveries, such as FedEx or UPS).
